

Tech Apprentice: Program Summary

- ❑ Launched in 2006 – program is a seven-week summer IT internship for Boston area High School students
 - ❑ Managed by TechBoston/Boston Public Schools and the Boston Private Industry Council
 - ❑ Designed to encourage students to pursue IT careers
 - ❑ Cost: $2,500 per student – 35 hours/week at $10/hour
-

Tech Apprentice: Great opportunity for students

- Gain experience in a professional environment
- First-hand exposure to careers in IT
- Apply skills in real world
- Build resume

Tech Apprentice: Smart investment for employers

- Strengthen IT education of high school students
 - Encourage IT careers & college majors
 - Cost-effective – pre-screened, motivated candidates
 - Invest in Boston-area students
 - Students can return to work for same employer next summer
 - Early contact with up and coming IT talent pool
-

Tech Apprentice

“There are so many Boston high school students who are ready for the special opportunity that Tech Apprentice presents. The Boston PIC and its member companies are proud to collaborate on this innovative school-to-career program.”

- Neil Sullivan, Executive Director, Boston Private Industry Council

Tech Apprentice

